17:10–18:10 · Two parallel rooms · Two debates per room · 30 minutes each

These sessions bring together pairs of scholars to deliberate on contested questions in inequality research, exposing the audience to competing perspectives and opening space for the research agendas that emerge when scholars engage directly with one another’s arguments.

LECTURE THEATRE

Moderated by Selçuk Bedük

Francisco Ferreira & Franziska Disslbacher

DEBATE 1

“Intergenerational mobility versus equality of opportunity: Which framework offers a more informative lens for understanding inherited disadvantage?”

David Brady & Zachary Parolin

“Do Europe and the UK need a new poverty measure? A discussion on whether the at-risk-of-poverty indicator based on 60 percent of median income is still fit for purpose.”

BUTLER ROOM

Moderated by Juliana de Castro Galvao

Salvatore Morelli & Mike Brewer

“Are inequality researchers too concerned with the ultra-rich? A discussion on the economic, social, and political relevance of studying the top of the income and wealth distributions.”

Arun Advani & Kristoffer Berg

“Wealth taxes: A discussion of the feasibility of a wealth tax and how an ideal wealth tax could be designed and administered.”
